About Carrie Tasman

I paint what's around me, flowers from my garden, sweeping valley views, leaf and birds, dogs and cats, a cosy couch...and lots of dots. I create atmosphere and impressions telling a story rather than realistically rendering. I always start by creating visual texture using silk screens, stencils and brush marks. I then work out a basic composition. From there I refine the shapes and colors to bring my idea into focus, covering up and reapplying color and textures creating depth and mystery.

I am a long-time resident of Oregon where I walk with my dog on our forest trails, ply the waters of the Willamette river in my single scull, and happily paint through the long, rainy winters. My work is collected and commissioned worldwide, as well as being licensed for quilt fabric. After graduating with Bachelor of Fine Arts I spent a decade working as a graphic designer before I started my career as a full-time artist.

2019 was a great season! I was chosen as the Memorabilia Artist for the prestigious Salem Art Fair 100th year anniversary in Salem, Oregon, and also won Best in Category at the Corvallis Fall Festival.

I believe in doing what I can to minimize my footprint, which is why I've opted out of plastic sleeves and instead use a plant-based biodegradable eco-cello bags.
